

DOSS COUNSELING

DECEMBER
2024

Inclusive Schools Week

December 2-6 was Inclusive Schools Week. Our classroom lessons this month are focused on inclusion and teaching acceptance. Some of the books we have shared with classes are We're All Wonders, What Happened to You?, and The Invisible Boy. By providing accurate and positive representations of people with disabilities, we can help students develop a greater empathy and understanding of persons with different abilities.

If you'd like to continue this conversation at home, here is a list of children's books about disabilities.

Middle School Transition

This next semester can be filled with mixed emotions of excitement, sadness, worry, and more. Ms. Perez will be meeting with each 5th grader one-on-one in January for individual check-ins about their plans for middle school and their feelings about the transition. Please email natalie.perez@austinisd.org if you have any additional questions.

This document, which will be updated regularly, includes all the details about Murchison and AISD magnet schools.
