Kindness Week 2024

Please join us in celebrating and spreading kindness at Doss! Kindness Week has been planned in collaboration with our 5th Grade PALS.

Monday November 11	Tuesday November 12th	Wednesday November 13th	Thursday November 14th	Friday November 15th
Veterans Day Wear Red, White, and Blue to show appreciation and thanks for our U.S. Veterans. 	Hero Day Dress up as your favorite character to represent being a hero or "good guy". 	World Kindness Day Dress in your Doss Kindness shirt or wear a variety of colors to represent "Coloring Doss with Kindness". 	Culture Day Wear something that represents and honors you and your culture. Join us at Cultural Heritage Night from 6-8pm. 	Hobby/Talent/Jersey Day Wear something that represents a hobby, talent, or sport you participate in so we can celebrate being unique.
Challenge Tell someone thank you and show appreciation for the kindness a classmate or friend has shown you.	Challenge Do something kind when nobody is watching today. Being kind is heroic and doesn't always need to be noticed to matter.	Challenge Do at least one act of kindness for another student in your class.	Challenge Write a thoughtful message to a classmate or friend, showing acceptance for who they are.	Challenge Share a fun fact about yourself with your class today and celebrate our differences.

College Shirts

Doss staff members wear college shirts on Thursdays. I like to sport a different college every week so students can see the many different options there are for higher education around the country. If you'd like me to rep your college, send me a shirt size L!
